A DOO WOP CHRISTMAS

Music brings the Rudolph family together in the Show Palace's

A Doo Wop Christmas

*This new production is sure to warm your heart with an original story set to the tune of Doo Wop holiday favorites and Christmas classics. Join the Rudolph's as they sing Christmas carols around the fireplace, share a chaotic family dinner, time hop back to when the sounds of Doo Wop rang out on the radio and make it back just in time for midnight mass. Grab your favorite Christmas sweater, pack your family into the minivan and get into the "bop shoo bop" holiday spirit at the Show Palace this winter

FREEFALL THEATER

ST. PETE, FL

DEPARTS 10AM RETURNS 6:00PM

1898. Northwestern Canada. Deep in the forests of the Yukon Territory. After the massacre of her tribe, a young girl is rescued from the snow by an old huntsman from a nearby settlement who offers shelter and the strength to survive. Torn from the centuries of tradition, facing a new and violent land, she struggles to find her path in the world. An outsider to all, she discovers hope in the friendship of an abandoned wolf, White Fang. With this newfound alliance, the two unite with the land, learning the ways of her ancestors. Lethal with blade and bow, there are few who can match her skill in the wild. But when the time comes, and she faces the greatest challenge of all, will these skills be enough to make a difference? Will they be enough to survive? An epic story of love, loss and redemption.

Inspired by the classic novel by Jack London, author of The Call of the Wild and The Sea Wolf
